Aims and activities of the organisation	WOCA Foundation (Work for a Cause), a breaking creative foundation that designs, promotes and implements social, cultural, sporting, technologic projects always from an all-round inclusive perspective and focused on empowering collectives to achieve true social equality. Our mission is to create a more collaborative society, based in mutual respect where every member feels represented. For this, we use all the possibly available key tools in every project we embark on. A reflexive, creative process of transformation that falls into place with an extraordinary sensibility and corporate social responsibility designed for public institutions, private organisations, foundations and companies. WOCA connects users to spaces, products and services; it adds social value and raises awareness. Functionality and creativity merging together in the process of developing social transformation projects through art, sports and technology. In order to thrive in these goals, we firmly count on teamwork philosophy, and enroll the best professionals in multiple fields and, above all, we listen to, counsel and accompany our users through the whole process.
